

sixfootsix

2008 Pinot Noir

- Region: Geelong, Victoria
- Style: sixfootsix Pinot Noir is about the fruit, little more, nothing less. A bright, fresh and juicy wine, it offers the finesse and restraint of Old World style while defining the depth of flavour possible from Geelong pinot noir. Inviting and persuasive, this eminently drinkable wine is best enjoyed while young and fresh.
- Appearance: Bright cherry to mid-red, gleaming in the glass.
- Aroma: Enticing, perfumed aromas of fresh plums, dark and maraschino cherries in league with a tamarind-led savoury complexity and a violet petal or two.
All this saturates the senses in true pinot noir fashion; vivacious and alluring.
- Palate: That momentum continues on the palate where a refreshing acidity details the varietal characters fulfilling the promise of the bouquet. The cherry, plum and spice flavours are supported by soft tannins in a structure as inviting as it is satisfying.
As with all fine wine, all facets of this pinot noir persist on the aftertaste.
- Comment: The sixth vintage of this benchmark label highlights the continuing refinement and progression of a style defined by the terroir of Sutherlands Creek.
